CHRIS BURDEN DOCUMENTATION OF SELECTED WORKS 1971-74

A compilation of Burden's performance pieces of the early 70s including the (in)famous Shoot, 1971.

2pm

ENDURANCE: THE VIDEO PROGRAMME, REEL TWO

Includes works by Bonnie Sherk, Carolee Schneemann, Paul McCarthy.

12pm

EITAN BUCHALTER

Simple yet rigorous interventions that playfully disrupts the viewer's engagement with a particular space, and invites them to be implicit in the making of the work.

2pm

MARINA ABRAMOVIĆ SEVEN EASY PIECES

Babette Mangolte's stunning document captures seven performances made by Abramović in the Guggenheim Museum, presenting her own works alongside interpretations of seminal performance pieces by artists including Bruce Nauman.

7pm – LAUNCH

WILLIAM HUNT

William Hunt (UK) makes performances ranging from hanging upside down immersing his head in a bucket whilst playing guitar, to filling a room with water. Hunt will engineer an absurd and playful situation in response to the architectural space at VIVID.

7pm

GILLIAN DYSON

Gillian Dyson (UK) works from the object and the material employing everyday things – chairs, ladders, wallpaper, water, the mark left by the hand on skin, the sound made by a single drum beat, to interrogate the relationships between external structures, the body and its trace.

4pm

TRACEY WARR

Curator and writer Tracey Warr discusses the themes within the Endurance programme. A member of the Editorial Board of Performance Research Journal, she has curated work by artists such as Marina Abramović, Stelarc and Helen Chadwick.

7.45pm – LAUNCH
